

The Wildlife Trust of South and West Wales Wildlife Adoption Scheme

The Wildlife Trust of South and West Wales is inviting you to adopt a species most in need of our help and to help us make a difference to the wildlife and wild places of Wales.

By adopting one of our wildlife species you will help The Wildlife Trust of South and West Wales to conserve this species as well as providing yourself or a loved one with a memorable gift.

The species you can adopt are

Protect-a-Puffin

Defend-a-Dormouse

Adopt-an-Otter

Rescue-a-Red Squirrel

Save-our-Seals

How much does it cost?

Adoptions cost £25 and last for one year.

What will the Adoptee receive?

The adoptee will receive an adoption pack containing

- A welcome letter
- Adoption certificate
- Fact sheet on your adopted animal
- Soft toy
- In addition, puffin adoptions also receive a badge.

Once a year you will receive a report on the adopted animal and, where puffins are concerned, we will endeavour to tell you whether or not your puffin has been sighted during the previous year (puffins are ringed as part of our field studies so are easily identifiable).

Adopt today and help us to protect wildlife for the future

The Wildlife Trust of South and West Wales protects and enhances the habitats required for these species to survive through conservation work on its nature reserves and by education and advice to landowners and the public. The money raised by your adoption will go towards the costs of carrying out this work, directly contributing to the survival of these species so that populations can continue to grow.
